

I urge the Commission not to loosen media ownership regulations any further. Concentration of multimedia channels in a few corporate hands violates the the rights of the public, who are, after all, the owners of the airwaves, to a broad, diverse variety of opinion and information.

I also urge the June 2 ruling date be extended so that the Commission can adequately publicize the changes under consideration and make a sincere effort to solicit public input.